New Member Orientation

Staff Contact Chanci Fondren welcomed the new members of the Fayetteville Youth Advisory Council. She reviewed Robert's Rules of Order and procedure. She went on to review the roles available on the council and that each student can create or run for a position on the council. Mentioning that three roles must be filled: Chair, Co-Chair and Secretary. The council discussed acting appropriately in regard to Freedom of Information Act. They reviewed the current by-laws; she instructed them to review the by-laws and bring forward any changes they would like to see. She discussed attendance requirements, that members had to attend at least 70% of all meetings. If a member is to miss a meeting, they must let the staff contact or the chairperson know before the meeting. They reviewed the monthly presentation requirement for each student and discussed the possibility of guest presenters.

Open Discussion

Members used the opportunity to ask questions and gain clarification. There was discussion on a possible community event. It was also decided to hold two environmental clean-ups a year, one in fall and the other in spring.
